

SOCIETY and CLUBS

By ALINE THOMPSON

THE summer exodus this year lacks much of the finality of previous seasons. Who better average household has been removed to Agate Beach, Seal Rocks, Newport, or some other of the popular summer colonies one is likely to encounter almost any member of the family in town almost any day.

Because of this spasmodic migration to and from town, one finds the social calendar somewhat devoid of anything but society goings and comings. In fact feminine frivolity is almost a thing of the past at present, and everything centers around the war work.

Not even for the brief journey into the country does society forsake the sterner duties. Kaiting in hand the women enter the train or motor and no sooner are they comfortably settled than the busy needles fly.

On the golf links, tennis courts, sea shore and at home the work continues. Indeed one might almost say there is no longer a leisure class. For, we are all up and doing something towards giving our "bit" wherever help is needed.

Mrs. R. S. Wallace left Thursday for Schenectady, New York, to visit her daughter, Mrs. William Lamb. She expects to remain in the east for three weeks or longer, and will of course, spend most of her time in Schenectady. She was accompanied east by her son, Sergeant Paul Wallace, of Company M, who is enjoying a short furlough.

This probably is Sergeant Wallace's last opportunity to see his sister, before leaving for France, as his company is expecting a call at any time.

Mrs. Lamb was Miss Ruth Lee Wallace before her marriage several years ago, and was one of the most popular and charming girls in Salem society.

One of the gayest and merriest affairs of the week among the younger contingent was the delightful dancing party for which Mrs. George E. Waters was hostess Monday night, honoring Miss Louenna Waters of Portland who has been passing the summer in Salem with her grandmother, Mrs. E. F. Waters.

Garden flowers in a riot of artistic coloring decked the rooms. About a dozen young friends of Miss Waters shared in the gayeties, and at a late hour the evening was topped off with delightful refreshments.

Assisting Mrs. Waters were Mrs. E. E. Waters, Miss Ida Simmons and Carl Gabrielson. The guests were Miss Louella Patton, Miss Ruth Schultz, Miss Lucile Jones, Miss Jeannette Meredith of North Yakima and Wolcott Baren, George Croisan, Adair Lockwood, Ira Mercer and Leon Culbertson.

Mrs. Thomas C. Smith, Jr., and young son, Malcolm Smith, who have been summering at the Warren hotel, in Eccla, Cannon Beach, came home Thursday evening with Dr. Smith who motored to the beach last week.

Mrs. Harry E. Clay, prominent society matron, who accompanied her husband, Captain Clay, to San Francisco, where he was ordered to report for duty.

Miss Mande Durbin left Wednesday for Portland, en route to southern California for a few weeks visit.

She was accompanied as far as Portland by her mother, Mrs. Frank W. Durbin, who came home yesterday.

Miss Durbin sailed for San Francisco Thursday on the Great Northern, and will spend a week or so there, before going to Alwater and Merced, where she will visit friends. At the former place she will be the guest of Mrs. Robert Renshaw.

Judge and Mrs. J. C. Moreland have returned from Portland where they have been passing a week or so with their daughters, Mrs. Chester A. Moores and Mrs. Mark W. GHI. Next week Mrs. Moores expects to come to Salem for a short visit.

Mrs. George W. Lewis gave a matinee party yesterday at the Oregon theater, in honor of her small son, John Augustus, on his sixth birthday.

After the "movies" the youngsters returned to the Lewis residence for a delightful lunch. The table was done in a dainty pink color scheme, and was decked with roses and sweet peas. Assisting Mrs. Lewis were Mrs. George E. Schaefer, Mrs. Miles of Portland, and the Misses Marvella Edwards, Louise Schaefer, Genevieve Barbour, Mary Lewis and Genevieve Emmett.

The kiddies sharing in the gayeties were Irma, Lois and Gordon Reeves, William Gahldorf, Jr., Helen and Robert Cotter, Virginia, Hilt, Donald Moore, Homer Smith, Jr., Charles Bier, and Edith Emmett.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fike, who have been visiting their relatives—the Russells—left Monday night for San Francisco, California, en route to their home in Bonne Terre, Missouri. They will pass several weeks in San Francisco and are the guests of their daughter, Mrs. Ralph Smith.

Mrs. H. M. Coffin of Boise, Idaho, who also has been a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Catlin returned home last Saturday.

Mrs. Bernard O. Schucking who, with her parents and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Gilbert and Mrs. Ray D. Gilbert, has been enjoying a delightful tour of the beach resorts, returned Wednesday night.

During their absence they visited most of the Tillamook beaches, lingering only for a short time at each place. From these resorts the party motored to Seaside and Eccla, making the loop.

Miss Jeannette Meredith, the attractive young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Meredith, of North Yakima, who has been passing the summer with her grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. John W. Meredith, left for her home Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Rodgers who are sojourning in Astoria, where Mr. Rodgers has large ship building interests, came home Wednesday and returned the Rodgers have taken a house in Astoria as Mr. Rodgers new interests will keep them there for some time.

Ben W. Oleott left today for Eccla, Cannon Beach, to join his family who are passing the summer with the Oswald Wests of Portland.

Mr. Oleott will remain at the beach only for about a fortnight, while Mrs. Oleott and the kiddies will linger there a few weeks longer.

Carl Gabrielson will leave tomorrow for Portland, en route to San Francisco to enter the officers reserve training camp.

He will be accompanied as far as Portland by his mother, Mrs. C. D. Gabrielson and Mr. and Mrs. Chaucer Bishop who will motor down, and return on Monday.

Gabrielson, with several other Salem men, sails for the Presidio Monday morning on the Great Northern.

Miss Elizabeth Lord who with her mother, Mrs. William P. Lord, has recently come home from a sojourn in the Orient, is in receipt of an interesting letter from a friend in Cebu, Philippine Islands, recounting the wonderful success society is having there with its Red Cross work. Early in June a cabaret dinner was given there at the U. S. club for the benefit of the Red Cross and netted the huge sum of $1374.61.

The women and girls who were responsible for the huge success of this soiree, wore Red Cross uniforms and many acted as vendors, selling cakes, candies, Red Cross arm bands, table covers and caps, all of which brought in over $800. The candy was auctioned and made 75 dollars. The cakes brought 563 dollars, some going as high as $75 and none lower than 8 dollars.

The Red Cross articles amounted to 70 dollars. Buses and bicycles also were sent to Cebu from the mountains for the benefit and netted $106.85. The rest of the amount was made from the sale of the tickets which were $2.50 each, and from the bar receipts and donations. Society in Cebu was in high spirits over the huge financial success of the venture—and well may it have been—not everywhere can 1374 dollars be realized from one evening of pleasure.

Cebu which is in the southern Philippines, is the largest city in the south era group, and is inhabited only by 100,000 people, mostly Americans and English pre-empting.

Charming Miss Louenna Waters, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Waters of Portland, who has been spending the greater part of the summer in Salem with her grandmother, Mrs. E. F. Waters, returned home Wednesday. Later, Miss Waters will come back to Salem to accompany her grandmother to the beach.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Moores who are summering at their cottage in Nye Beach, are entertaining guests this season, following their usual custom. With them now in their daughter, Mrs. Robert Kinney (Albina Moores) of Astoria. Earlier in the season the Moores also had visiting them the Misses Carrie and Bertha Moores of Portland, sisters of Mr. Moores.

Justice and Mrs. Henry J. Bean and their daughter, Miss Florence Bean, have gone to their ranch near Newport, where they spend a part of every summer.

They motored over on Thursday, taking as their guest, Miss Florence Cleve land. They will remain at the shore until the first of September.

Accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. John D. Sutherland and Mrs. Sherman W. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Fisher left today for a week end motor trip to the Tillamook resorts.

Dr. and Mrs. Marcus C. Findley, and their son and daughter, Marcus B. Findley and Miss Mary Findley, will leave early in the coming week for a visit to Tacoma and Seattle.

They will be away for about two weeks and before coming home are planning to take a trip to Mt. Rainier and National Park.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cook who have been sharing in the delights of Belknap Springs for the past ten days or so, returned Thursday. En route they visited friends in Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Moore and children will leave tomorrow for a sojourn at Tillamook. Mrs. Moore and the children are planning to remain at the beach for about a month, while Mr. Moore will return within a few days.

They were accompanied by Miss Frances Faust of Portland.

Mrs. Stacey Reeves and her small son, Stacey Jr., of Astoria arrived in Salem Wednesday night for a visit to relatives, and will be here for two or three weeks. Later they will be joined by Mr. Reeves.

Mr. and Mrs. Zadoc J. Riggs will motor to Portland tomorrow, and will be accompanied by Miss Ida Simmons.

Mrs. Henry E. Bolinger and Mrs. H. S. Bolinger returned Thursday from Portland where they have been visiting friends for several days.

Mrs. M. F. Draper of Portland is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. William H. Burghardt, Jr. Mrs. Draper came Wednesday and will be here for a week or so.

The William H. Eldridges, who have been leisurely touring the Sound country for the past two weeks are now at Gearhart where they expect to remain until after the golf tournament.

AT SHIPLEY'S Slim, Slender, Lined Styles for Fall

Initial showing of New Falls Modes.

As we went our way into Fall, along Fashion highway, it is a pleasure to watch the bright colors of summer, turning, even as in nature, to the rich tones which lend such charm to the new season's styles, note the many clever variations of the modes and the beautiful materials of which they are developed.

THE COATS--
are all enveloping, though not too full, and have novel belts, numerous variations of the big protecting collars, and unusual sleeve effects that make them simply irresistible $7.48 to $65.00

THE SUITS--
with their long jackets are quite the prettiest ever. They find so many ways of being different that you may be sure yours will be "individual" expressive of your own type $19.75 to $75.00

THE DRESSES--
with shoulders squared and waist line defined, vie for popularity with those which choose to drop quite straight from collar to hem. One may choose from ever so many charming styles. Materials are serge, poplins, and combined materials. ... $9.75 to $45.00

POCKETS ARE IN THE SWIM—POCKETS MAY BE TABOO FOR THE men, but fashion designers are evident retaliating by applying them on women's clothes in every available spot. Here, at last, is a bathing suit with pockets. No young person could not be taken with this particular black taffeta suit, and especially taken with the idea of filling those pockets for the indispensable handkerchief, ointment powder puff, the extra hairpin and the tiny mirror. At last we can go swimming in comfort.
